

AKSHARA SAHAAYA

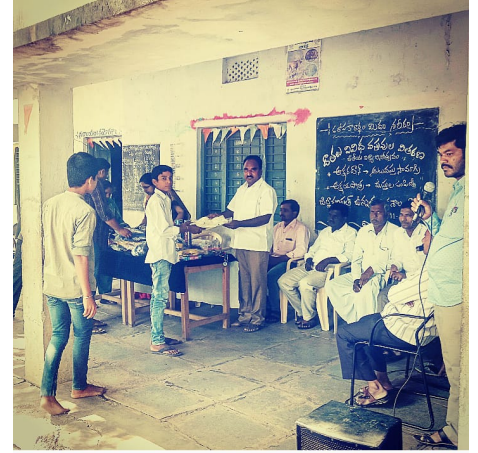

free, online interface for direct transfer of services

aksharadaan.net

One of Aksharadaan's digital interfaces built to facilitate the direct transfer of services (academic, cultural, infrastructural) from prospective donors to students/schools.

For example, the Principal of ZPHS Thatipally had registered a request for Sports Equipment. This need was met by online purchases and direct supply by one of our registered donors. (Right) Village Sarpanch distributing Sports Kit received through Akshasa Sahaaya.

DEMONSTRATED SERVICES

Curriculum support -

Meeting special coaching fee, building computer infrastructure, providing learning material.

Extra-curricular support -

Establishing sports facility, coaching for special talents in music and arts.

Co-curricular support -

Establishing libraries, educational tours.

Motivational support -

Spoorthi awards for general motivation, motivational lectures and sessions

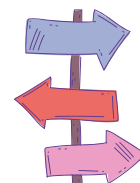

CURRENT STATUS:

Aksharadaan facilitated to link schools and donors to avail services using the School-Aksharadaan-Donor model, 2019-20.

11

services were rendered across 10 schools with participation of 65 individual donors leading to standardization of protocols.

Aksharadaan is guiding schools to directly interact with donors to avail services as Schools-Donors model. After this pilot testing, the interface will be on open access for all. (2021-22).